DEATH OF A GOOD WOMAN.

Mrs. Sarah Tyler, widow of Rev.
J. W. Tyler, Called Away.

Mrs. Sarah Tyler, widow of the late Rev. John W. Tyler, of beloved memory, passed into rest at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning, July 25, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. A. Morwenster, on West Main street.

Mrs. Tyler was born Nov. 16, 1818, in Shelby county, Ky. Her maiden name was Sarah Hoesy, and in company with her father's family she came to Illinois when 16 years of age and settled in what is now Monticello county. On Feb. 28, 1839, she was married to Rev. Tyler, and to them eleven children were born; two died in infancy, one grew to manhood and died, and eight are living.
They settled on the farm five miles east of Decatur, near Antioch, where their children were all born. Rev. Tyler was a pioneer preacher, and during his frequent absences the management of the farm and the care of her large family, including three step-children, devolved upon her, and grandly did she perform every duty, even under the many trials of an always frail body.

During the month of May Mrs. Tyler went to Decatur to visit her daughter, Mrs. Cook, but the change of climate did not seem to agree with her, and it was thought best to bring her home, which was done the middle of June, since which time she has been confined to her bed. Those who were privileged to visit her sick room felt it an inspiration to see the cheerful, patient spirit, ready to stay or go as the Lord willed.
Several days, in the month of June, she was the measure of her earth life, but all eternity will not be too long for the influence of her life to live in the hearts of her children and the many friends who knew and loved her as their own.
The funeral will not be announced till the arrival of her sons, Rev. B. B. and J. Z. Tyler.

It May be the Last.

Between 2,000 and 3,000 Knights Templars of Illinois will attend the convocation at Decatur. It is estimated that 5,000 people of Illinois will witness the opening ceremonies. It is stated in a dispatch from Denver that in all probability, the 25th triennial convocation of the Knights Templars will be held there in August will be the last consolidated meeting of Templars in America. For a quarter of a century the sentiment against such a large gathering has been gaining strength in the rank and file of the organization, and it is the general impression that the Denver convocation will conclude the series which for seventy-five years have witnessed a growth and unparalleled in modern times. The heavy expense involved by the triennial roundup and a large amount of work required in preparing for the reception of vast thronges of visitors are objections which cannot be satisfactorily answered by the friends of a time-honored custom. The question will be presented and discussed at the coming meeting, and it is claimed that hereafter the convocations will be held with the same regularity as in the past, but each convocation will only represent a certain portion of the country.

Nearly a Fire.

It was too hot yesterday morning to shiver, but anyhow there was something of a scare at the drug store of W. C.
Armstrong when the clerks arrived.
Happening to look upward a clerk discovered that during the night at one place the wooden ceiling had been badly scorched by the electric wire. There was every evidence of an incident fire during the night, which did not get down to complete destruction because simply because the blaze was not quite sufficient to ignite the wood. An electrician was called and he said the insulation in the nonconductor wire which supplies the lamps had burnt off and had scorched the place in the ceiling. Extra precautions have been taken to prevent a similar occurrence in the future.

A Relief.

There was placed in the show window at the Waggoner & Downing shoe store this morning a political voting ticket for the year 1904. It is a relic of that eventful campaign, and while there may be a few others in the city, the number is gradually diminishing and they are becoming quite a curiosity in their way.
The ticket is headed by Abraham Lincoln for president and Andrew Johnson for vice-president, and on the county ticket D. L. Bann is the candidate for state's attorney, A. A. Murray for sheriff and M. Y. Givler for coroner.

We Eat Too Much in Summer.

A well known physician said: "We all eat too much in the summer time. The man who begins a hot summer day with a cup of hot coffee, a big slice of beef-steak, a cupful of boiled eggs, and two or three hot soggy rolls, fresh from the oven, is simply firing up for the day. A glass of water, a few sips of coffee, a little fruit, a cracker and a glass of milk constitute all the breakfast needed for summer time in this climate, and during the intensely hot weather if a man eats meat once a day that is generally once too often."

Deaths.

The following announcement appeared in the Springfield Journal to-day, with the request that Decatur papers copy the same:
THOMPSON—Died July 25, at the residence of her son-in-law, Levi Powers, in Carlinville, Mrs.
Barbara Ann Thompson, widow of the late William Thompson, formerly of this city, at the age of 72 years and 9 months.

The remains will be taken to Williamsville and the funeral services will be held at that place at the Christian church to-day. Interment at Wolf Creek cemetery.

Remove It.

There is lying along the Illinois Central track south of the city, about 300 yards from Decatur street, the carcass of an old horse, which was probably killed by the cars, and which emits a terrible stench and is causing a hearty kick among the residents of that neighborhood. If they can find the man who owned the animal they will treat him rather roughly if he does not remove the carcass.

Harry a Starter.

Ald. Harry Scanlon, of Decatur, Ill., arrived in Freeport Sunday morning, and will set as the starter at the race to be held at Taylor's Park this week.
Ald. Scanlon is one of Decatur's most progressive and enterprising young business men, and has nobly had regulation sign starter on the race course.

EFFECTS OF THE HEAT.

Prostrations in Decatur—With the Temperature at 94.

The sustained high temperature, the highest for a long period known in several years in this locality, is making itself felt in different quarters of the city.
Life everywhere seems to be a burden the torrid days to city folk, while in the country no work requiring exposure in the sun is attempted in the middle of the day, except by those who have no fear of consequences and are willing to take chances.
In the city the bosses caution the men at work on the buildings in course of construction to exercise care as to prolonged exposure in the sun. The heat yesterday was 95 to 100; to-day it is 93 to 95, with some no failures exposed to-day.
But physicians say the continued hot weather is affecting the children noticeably. The greatest care of the little ones should be taken. In Illinois his prophey promises cooler weather to-morrow.

OVERCOME BY THE HEAT.

James Sanderson, a carpenter in the Wabash shops, was overcome by the intense heat this morning and was compelled to quit work, and with the assistance of several friends walked to the office of the Wabash physician, Dr. Brennan, where he received medical assistance. He was then taken to his home at 520 Broadway street. The case is not serious, and it is thought he will recover in time.

Bob Williams, one of the clerks at the current clerk's office, fell while at work this morning at 10 o'clock and was taken home. He is not on duty this afternoon, preferring to remain at the home of his father, John H. Williams, where he is sitting beneath the shade of the trees enjoying the breeze. It seems to be a case of partial prostration by heat.

SUNSTROKE FATALITY.

William Andrews the Victim—Stricken While Working at the High School.

William Andrews, a brickmaker, who came to Decatur from Chicago, less than three months ago, and entered the employ of the Ope Reelers was stricken by the heat yesterday while at work on the high school building, and died in less than an hour. Andrews with the other men was exposed to the sun, and at about 3 o'clock spoke to one of his companions, saying that he felt sick.
The foreman told him to go down in the shade and he did so, sitting on the lawn with towel in hand. Suddenly Andrews rose and made a run up the street and into a yard near Franklin street where he fell. Fellow workmen followed, a crowd gathered, and Dr. J. N. Randall and Cass. Chenoweth were summoned to attend the sufferer. The physicians could afford him relief, and Andrews died in a short time.
Coroner removed the body and the body was removed in the ambulance to the J. A. Rees undertaking establishment. It was not deemed necessary to hold an inquest. Last night a message was received from Chicago, stating that Edward Andrews, a brother of the deceased, will arrive in Decatur this afternoon and take charge of the remains, which will probably be taken to Chicago for burial. Andrews was a single man, aged about 38 years, and weighed about 200 pounds. He was a member of the local union of bricklayers and was an excellent workman. He boarded on South Park street. He was a jovial companion.
During the past few days he had complained of the heat, and said Sunday that he did not think he could stand the high temperature much longer.

After the death of Andrews the other brickmakers on the high school building quit work, and everybody deplored the fatality.

To-night the local unions will meet to take action on the death of Andrews.

TOO AWFUL FOR BELIEF.

A Young Woman Overlaid by a Deputy Sheriff's Wife—The Victim of Rumors of Her Friends.
CINCINNATI, July 26.—A terrible outrage was perpetrated at Parlor Grove Sunday night. Josie Berger, a pretty girl, the victim, together with her escort, who attended the Pandemonium club picnic.
While taking a stroll through the woods the couple were overtaken by two young men from Covington, who were well known to both Miss Berger and her escort. One of the men was Robert Brown, deputy sheriff of Covington, and the other was a light-weight pugilist of Kentucky. He had a revolver in his hand and pointing it at Ferguson, the young man who accompanied Miss Berger, he said:
"You are both under arrest."
"You don't mean that," said Ferguson.
"I'll show you mighty quick if I don't," replied Brown.
His companion grappled with Ferguson, while Brown choked Miss Berger into insensibility and outraged her modesty. The couple were helped which soon arrived, but the villains had escaped. Intense excitement prevailed and diligent search was made for the perpetrators, but they were without result. The whole affair occurred within a few yards of a thousand people. All the parties are well known and well connected in Covington.

THE WORST CRIMINAL.

Never Confined in the Missouri State Prison Tries to Escape.
JERSEYVILLE, Mo., July 26.—J. W.
Johnson, the worst criminal ever confined in the Missouri penitentiary, yesterday made an unsuccessful attempt to escape. Since he set free in the penitentiary in 1888, unfailing a loss to the state of some $300,000, and one-third as much to private individuals, he has been kept confined in a cell to himself most of the time. Six or eight times he has tried to pick the lock on his cell door with a wire contrivance he had doubtless spent months in making, and each time he has been caught. He has been a constant source of trouble, and a murderous assault on the guard, Walker Goodall. Although a cripple from a recent injury, the latter defended himself from serious harm until assistance arrived, when Johnson was overpowered and placed in a cell.

The Italian Columbian Monument.

New York, July 26.—Haron Fava, the Italian minister at Washington, has sent word to L. Contonini, president of the Italian chamber of commerce here, that the Columbian monument, now making in Italy, will be here on September 15. It will be brought on the Italian royal military transport, the Liguria, escorted by the cruiser Baccan. The monument will be placed at the corner of Fifty-fifth street and Eighth avenue. A model of it has already arrived here. The unveiling will take place October 12.

Is There a Woman in the Case?

PORTLAND, Ore., July 26.—A telegram has been received here from Moline, Ill., saying that Rev. J. C. Read, pastor of the First Baptist church of Eastport, and who was supposed to have been arrested in Williams river last Tuesday night, is in the city at the residence of his brother, and that his mind is badly shattered owing to overwork. The conclusion that he had been drowned here was drawn from the fact that his clothing was found on the river bank. The report is current that a woman figures in the case.

A Purely Personal Affair.

New York, July 26.—Police Superintendent O'Mara, of Pittsburgh, called at police headquarters yesterday morning and was closeted with Acting Superintendent Steers fully half an hour.
In a subsequent interview with a United Press reporter, Mr. Steers said that Mr. O'Mara's visit to this city was a purely personal affair.

Will Be Ordered to Have and Go.

WASHINGTON, July 26.—Secretary Tracy has decided that he will, about October 1, send the United States steamship Constellation, the training ship to Havre and Genoa. The Constellation is the only ship of this country's large collection of workers of art of Columbus time for exhibition at the World's fair.

8100 a Side.

There will be a fast race run at the fair grounds at Springfield on Thursday afternoon between Y. Saunders of Mt.
Pulaski, and Mac Williams of Bloomington. The race will be 100 yards, for $100 a side, and promises to be a big affair. Saunders is foreman of the famous running team of Mt. Pulaski, which won the state championship at the Firemen's tournament at Lincoln last year, making a run of 235 1/2 yards in 37 1/2 seconds, and Williams claimed a record of 100 yards in 10 seconds.

No More Gambling in Peoria.

Mayor Warner at Peoria has ineffectually set his foot down on gambling. The order is issued that no gambling be conducted in the city. The order will be strictly enforced. Chief Hayles announces that any houses being open there after yesterday will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

No Swim Yet.

There will be no swimming at the National night as was expected. More time is required to fill the pool with fresh water, and the doors will not be opened until Wednesday night. The management hope to be ready then to serve the public again.
